DETAILED ACTION

1. This restriction is in response to the application filed March 26, 2004.

Election/Restrictions

2. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Embodiment I (Claims 1-4 and 17-19), directed to a semiconductor package comprising a deflectable element on a substrate, wherein the deflectable element is a mirror plate that is attached to a hinge, getter material and/or a lubricant disposed on the substrate and a package having the substrate with the deflectable element;

Embodiment II (Claims 1, 5-8 and 17-19), directed to a semiconductor package comprising a deflectable element on a substrate, getter material and/or a lubricant disposed on the substrate and a package having the substrate with the deflectable element and a package substrate having a cavity in which the substrate and the deflectable element is accommodated;

Embodiment III (Claims 1, 9 and 17-19), directed to a semiconductor package comprising a deflectable element on a substrate, getter material and/or a lubricant disposed on the substrate and wherein the lubricant material is disposed on a surface around the circumference;

Embodiment IV (Claims 1, 10 and 17-19), directed to a semiconductor package comprising a deflectable element on a substrate, getter material and/or a lubricant disposed on the substrate and wherein the lubricant material is disposed on a sidewall of the substrate;

Embodiment V (Claims 1, 11-14 and 17-19), directed to a semiconductor package comprising a deflectable element on a substrate, getter material and/or a lubricant disposed on the substrate and wherein the lubricant material is disposed in a capillary tubing formed on the substrate;

Embodiment VI (Claims 1, 15 and 17-19), directed to a semiconductor package comprising a deflectable element on a substrate, getter material and/or a lubricant disposed on the substrate and wherein the lubricant material is held by a container that is attached affixed to the substrate;

Embodiment VII (Claims 1, 16 and 17-19), directed to a semiconductor package comprising a deflectable element on a substrate, getter material and/or a lubricant disposed on the substrate and wherein the lubricant material is disposed in a trench on the substrate;

Embodiment VIII (Claim 20), directed to a semiconductor package comprising a substrate, a deflectable element attached to a deformable element held by the substrate, and a carrier disposed on the substrate;

Embodiment IX (Claims 21-24 and 37-39), directed to a semiconductor package comprising a deflectable element on a substrate, wherein the deflectable element is a mirror plate that is attached to a hinge a getter having a getter material disposed on the substrate, a lubricant material that is carried by the getter, a package having the substrate with the deflectable element;

Embodiment X (Claims 21, 25-28 and 37-39), directed to a semiconductor package comprising a deflectable element on a substrate, wherein the deflectable element is a mirror plate that is attached to a hinge a getter having a getter material disposed on the substrate, a lubricant material that is carried by the getter, a package having the substrate with the deflectable element and a package substrate having a cavity in which the substrate and the deflectable element is accommodated;

Embodiment XI (Claims 21, 29 and 37-39), directed to a semiconductor package comprising a deflectable element on a substrate, wherein the deflectable element is a mirror plate that is attached to a hinge a getter having a getter material disposed on the substrate, a lubricant material that is carried by the getter, a package having the substrate with the deflectable element and wherein the lubricant material is disposed on a surface around the circumference;

Embodiment XII (Claims 21, 30 and 37-39), directed to a semiconductor package comprising a deflectable element on a substrate, wherein the deflectable element is a mirror plate that is attached to a hinge a getter having a getter material disposed on the substrate, a lubricant material that is carried by the getter, a package having the substrate with the deflectable element and wherein the lubricant material is disposed on a side wall of the substrate;

Embodiment XIII (Claims 21, 31-34 and 37-39), directed to a semiconductor package comprising a deflectable element on a substrate, wherein the deflectable element is a mirror plate that is attached to a hinge a getter having a getter material disposed on the substrate, a lubricant material that is carried by the getter, a package having the substrate with the deflectable element and wherein the lubricant material is disposed in a capillary tubing formed on the substrate; Embodiment XIV (Claims 21, 35 and 37-39), directed to a semiconductor package comprising a deflectable element on a substrate, wherein the deflectable element is a mirror plate that is attached to a hinge a getter having a getter material disposed on the substrate, a lubricant material that is carried by the getter, a package having the substrate with the deflectable element and wherein the lubricant material is held by a container that is attached affixed to the substrate; and Embodiment XV (Claims 21, 36 and 37-39), directed to a semiconductor package comprising a deflectable element on a substrate, getter material and/or a lubricant disposed on the substrate and wherein the lubricant material is disposed in a trench on the substrate.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, none are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

3. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
